

This walk takes you around Daikanyama, and also through time – from ancient shrines to the latest craft beer brewery restaurant and from the traditional Japanese house and garden, to modern complexes like Hillside Terrace, Daikanyama T-Site and Log Road DAIKANYAMA. Sitting down, taking a deep breath and enjoying the surroundings is a common theme.

Here, you can see the city evolving, developing and changing, while staying true to its roots, protecting its cultural heritage and extending its traditions and crafts into modern businesses. Vibrant and lively, yet laid back, the stylish Daikanyama area is a well-known hangout for Tokyoites.
